Survey Next Quarter Seeks More Student Jobs

A project intended to get more jobs for students, and more students to jobs, will be undertaken next quarter by the Social Science department in cooperation with the deans' offices under the direction of Mr. Worth Oswald.

Expansion and coordination of the labor market for San Jose State college students is the purpose of a survey which will be open with a detailed questionnaire to be answered by students registration day of next quarter.

"There are undoubtedly some jobs college students don't know about, and there are students who don't know how to go about finding jobs," declares Mr. Oswald, who requests care and accuracy in answering questions on the questionnaire form which will be submitted to every student.

During the survey employers will also be interviewed, so that both sides of the problem may be statistically analyzed. The project is designed to aid those students who have work as well as those who need work but as yet have found none.

La Torre Charge Due March 25

Students desiring copies of La Torre, student yearbook edited by Bill Laffoon, must signify their intentions of securing the annual and make payment for it on registration day, March 25, according to Edith Dalley, staff member in charge of distribution.

Students in attendance for three quarters will be charged four cents for the book while those not in attendance for that period will be charged 50 cents for each quarter not in residence. Price of the annual to faculty members is $1.50. Payment will be accepted in the Art building after registration, booklets have been secured.

ROBINSON CARUSO OR SHIPWRECKED OPERA STAR

By HARRY GRAHAM

Mrs. Sybil Hanchett's Kindergarten-Primary music class has it all over the San Jose Players when it comes to whipping up a production—they even write their own parts . . .

"Robinson Caruso", an operetta written and directed, and produced this morning by members of the class, features a leading character without a name. So impressed by their handiwork that they felt a mere name could never do it justice, the authors dubbed it "The Island Animal" and let it go at that.

The thirteen members of the cast are Lore Ahrens as Robinson; Zelda Troddson as the Dog; First Cat, Mary Ann Ward; Second Cat, Janet Alexander; Parrot, Zeannette Cupich; Goat, Thelma Drake; First and Second Goats, Wilma Rothwell and Isabella Lamb; The Island Animal, Bette McKibbin; Friday, Dorothy Dillon; and Three Cannibals by Alma Fetzer, Charlotte Walker and Ardis Jasper.

Retires . . .

WHO THEY ARE

Retiring as Spartan Daily editor is Bart Maynard, senior, who completes his curriculum in journalism with the end of this quarter. Previous to the editorship, Maynard held the positions of news editor, copy editor, and associate editor, and in 1938 he edited the summer session Daily.

BILL RODRICK

. . . Succeeds

College Musicians Leave For Los Angeles Concert

Four bus loads of San Jose State college musicians comprising the Symphony orchestra, the Woodwind choir, and the A Cappella choir will leave for Los Angeles March 29, to present programs at the National Music Educators conference, March 29 to April 6.

The Symphony orchestra, conducted by Adolph W. Otterstein, head of the Music department, will present concerts at various cities on the way to Los Angeles while the A Cappella choir, led by William Erlendson, will appear on a coast-to-coast radio broadcast as the representative of the west. The program, which will be shared by the Joliet, Illinois, high school band, representing the east, will be presented Sunday morning, March 31.

Students Offered Swim Safety Training

A preliminary training course for instructors in swimming, life saving and water safety will be offered next quarter to students who have the proper qualifications.

The qualifications are as follows:
1. The applicant must be at least 19 years of age. No freshmen will be admitted to the course.

2. He must have completed new water safety course.

3. Women must obtain permission to enter class from Miss Tucker and men from Mr. Walker.

4. The applicant must have a definite teaching position in mind.

The class will meet on Tuesday nights from 7:00 to 10:00 with an additional hour to be arranged, as previously announced.

Ways Listed For Acquiring Grades

Students may obtain their grades at the end of the quarter in one of three ways, according to the Registrar's office.

1. Obtain an envelope from the table in front of the Business office, address it and enclose five cents (do not seal envelope). Insert the envelope in the slot in the door of the Business office.

2. Bring your self-addressed stamped envelope and put it in the Business office door.

3. Call for grades at the Registrar's office on or after Thursday, March 21.

KNIGHTS' SPRING FORMAL APRIL 6

Spartan Knights, honorary campus service fraternity, announce their Spring Formal dance scheduled for Saturday night, April 6, at the Hotel Sainte Claire.

Hal Moreno and his orchestra will furnish music for dancing from 9:00 until 1:00.

BULLETIN

University of Idaho with 10 points and San Jose State with 8 took an early lead in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate boxing meet at Sacramento last night at the end of the quarter-finals.

San Jose has been installed as favorites to win the title tonight by placing seven out of eight men in the semi-final bouts.

Dale Wren, Gene Fisk, and Tony Nasimento drew byes last night.

Results of quarter-finals: Bill Sellers lost decision to Ted Kara of Idaho; Bill Bolich TKO'd Bruce Brooks of Idaho; Jim Kincaid decided George Christenson of Washington State; Pete Bolich decided Fred Spiggleburg of Washington State.

The surprise fight of the night saw Spartan Don Presley TKO Val Marchi of U.S.F. in what experts called an upset.

TWELVE VOICE STUDENTS GIVE FINAL CONCERT

Twelve voice students of Miss Maurine Thompson presented the last concert of a series Tuesday in the Little Theater before a large crowd.

Outstanding were Frances Myrtle, freshman soprano, Richard Rathman and Harvey Browning. Others on the program were Barbara Standing, Andy Holme, Alma Carrington, Geneva Gmelin, Leona Uhl, Janet Snively, Margaret Harms, Corinne Richey and Barbara Hill. Mrs. Margaret Otterstein and Dorothy Currell served as accompanists.

POSITION OPEN

The Appointment office would like to talk to candidates who are especially interested in rural schools of one or two room size. An opportunity now exists for interviews to be arranged for a teacher who is qualified to teach all eight grades, play the piano at least moderately well, and who drives a five-passenger car. Further details are available at the Appointment office. The position begins in September.

Reappointed Councilman; Don True Rally Head

By PONY SWENSON

The naming of Bill Rodrick, senior journalism major, editor of the Spartan Daily for the spring quarter and his re-appointment as a member of the student council highlighted last night's meeting of the governing board of San Jose State college.

Upon recommendation of Dwight Bentel, head of the department, Rodrick succeeds Bart Maynard, who completes his journalism curriculum with the end of this quarter. Rodrick formerly held the positions of news editor, copy editor, feature editor, and associate editor before being named head of the Daily.

Rodrick's re-appointment to the council continues his duties of filling the vacancy left by regularly-elected George Place, who gave up his position upon graduation last December. With Bob Bronzan, who has been absent because of student teaching, returning to assume his duties as vice-president, Doan Carmody, member of the council, will retire.

Don True was appointed to head the rally committee for the spring quarter upon recommendation of Bill Gurnea who held the position during the winter session.

Seeking better study conditions in the library the student council will contact all heads of organizations to bring pressure upon their members to cooperate with library officials by discontinuing unnecessary conversation and disturbances prevalent this quarter.

As a result of complaints made at the recent organizations dinner, the council will investigate the possibilities of purchasing floods and spotlights for organizations' use. Estimated cost of this was set at $150.

SOCIAL GROUP MEETS TODAY

A meeting of the Social Affairs committee will be held at 12:30 today in the Student Body office in the Student Union, Don Anderson, Social Affairs chairman, announces.

Plans for next quarter's work will be made at the meeting, and all old members of the Social Affairs committee as well as those interested in working in the group next quarter are urged to attend.

KUNST, CHAHAYA WIN FINAL WEEK AD COMPETITION

William Kunst, freshman commerce major, and Marden Chahaya, junior commerce major, won first place in the men's and women's divisions in the seventeenth and final week of competition of the Ad-Writing contest sponsored by Roos Bros, local clothing store.

The layout of Marden Chahaya is shown on Page 2 of today's paper. Final winners in the contest will be announced next quarter, states Carlton Pederson, commerce instructor and one of the judges.

DAY EDITOR, This Issue.....VANCE PERRY

◆ Just Among Ourselves ◆

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

A number of students have been in to see me lately about the subsidization of athletes. I was not able to get much of a definition out of them and they were not very clear about the problem, but they seemed to be pretty sure that something reprehensible was going on around here.

The fact is, of course, that we don't pay any football player, and never have. Because football men have to put in so much time in practice, we are willing to use income from the games to take care of the board and room which the players might otherwise earn. We haven't done even that in the winter quarter either, as we couldn't afford it. Only during the quarters when football was a part of the program did we help out.

Dud and I discussed this matter some years ago and went to bat then in a candid attempt to provide better housing conditions for the students. We hoped first to get a varsity house and next, a couple of scholarship houses. We would like to be able to attract good musicians, artists, speakers, writers, actors, even some straight "A" students, as well as athletes. If we could have a scholarship house for men and one for women, where students of special promise could get a room free and board at a very low rate, it would attract to the college a fine group of young men and women who could afford to put extra time on practice in their special fields.

The state will probably never do anything about housing. We shall have to work out that problem ourselves. In any case we expect to say candidly just what we are doing for the players. Call it subsidization if you wish, and make the most of it. We are still living in a democracy.

THRUST and PARRY

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

Thrust and Parry:

Certainly, in my estimation, the fraternities on this campus do not need a pathetic defense by Bob Bravo and Dick Lucky; and just what is the reason for that un-called-for insinuation about the Jewish and Italian people?

It seems to me, that what culture and progress we have in America today is derived directly from the genius and charm of these peoples. For example, in European countries we are known mainly for our gay, cosmopolitan Hollywood and for the grandness and greatness of Wall Street, that is easily the financial and economic center of the world. Our motion pictures alone, speak of Jewish ingenuity and genius.

As for the Italians, where would cooking and music be today in America without their contributions? Their genius for self-government and equanimity is fundamentally the basis of our democracy and tolerance.

The almost complete lack of social prejudice and bigotry today in America can be justly attributed to the internationalism of

The Point Of View

By Bart Maynard

Thursday night, 10:00 p.m.

Bill:

This morning a halftone of yourself appears on the front page. To a few, this means that you have reached the apex of your college journalism training; to others, you are another Spartan Daily editor. But to all concerned you are at the helm of an institution on the campus of which you can be justly proud.

Yours is the heritage of assuming a position in which lies a great deal of pride, responsibility and enjoyment. Many will ask favors of you which you will take pride in doing; yours will be the final judgment in regard to policies of the paper, and your enjoyment will lie in the fact that after nearly four years of work you are on top.

While you are editor you will make hundreds of friends and a few enemies. Your ability as editor will be scrutinized by nearly 4000 students. Hundreds of complaints will be laid on your desk but will be completely submerged by a few cherished compliments, graciously received.

For your generous assistance

this quarter, I offer a thousand thanks. May your associates be as helpful to you as you have been to me. May you enjoy a successful quarter, and when it is over say to yourself, "The period of editorship is all too short but I had a swell time while I was at it." Again, thanks, BART.

STATE NINE OPENS CONFERENCE AGAINST GAUCHOS

BULLETIN

Driving across a run in the eighth inning, the San Jose State freshmen nosed out the Castlemont high school nine, 3-2, yesterday at Oakland.

Billed as a seven inning game, the contest went into an extra frame after the two teams had battled on even terms following early scoring flourishes by both sides.

The Oaklanders threatened in their half of the seventh, but with Pete Filice relieving Espinoza on the mound, the Spartlets tightened to squelch the rally. Bucher with two hits in three trips to the plate and Bennett with two for four were the San Jose batting stars.

NOTICE

Following men turn in their equipment immediately: Warren Ball, Al Yim, Earl Brad, Bab Barnett, Hugh Manley, Ted Basletto, Ray Dawley, and Henry Antagnoni.

Play Four Games In San Diego Next Week

Santa Barbara State college's Gauchos invade Spartan field this afternoon for the first of a two-game series with Spartan horsehiders. Today's game will open the California Collegiate conference race.

GAME TIME

The teams will continue their rivalry tomorrow afternoon on the same field, starting at 2:30. Today's game gets underway at 2:30 also.

For this afternoon's game Coach Walt McPherson will start either Stubenrauch or Taggart. The latter has not worked on the mound yet this year, but will have a chance to show his stuff in the Gauchos series.

Visiting Coach 'Spud' Harder will start his ace left-hander, Fitzgerald, today. Tomorrow he will most likely pit either Wrightson or Gardenhire against San Jose's Kasparovitch or Nasimento.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL

Tuesday morning the Spartans head south for games with San Diego Marines on Wednesday and Thursday, and San Diego State on Friday and Saturday.

In games this week, San Jose lost 7 to 1 to U.S.F. on Tuesday, and came back Wednesday to defeat San Francisco State, conquerors of St. Mary's, 11 to 6.

Swim Team On Tour; Utah Bound

Barnstorming the state of Utah in repetition of the successful vacation tour of 1936, eleven Spartan mermen leave tomorrow for the tri-state trek to the land of Brigham Young.

With three opponents listed for the local aquatic stars, Coach Charlie Walker is in hopes of bettering his first tour when the San Jose swimmers won, tied, and lost a meet to the teams of Utah U., Utah State, and the Desert Athletic club of Salt Lake City. Weber college will be added to the roster for this year's opposition.

Captain Bill Johnston will lead the invading band of Spartan mermen and will be swimming his last meet as the only senior on the team.
